Hi Formaldehyde Dream Team:

I am so sorry for the delay. I really wanted to make sure I was being as helpful as possible. There are a lot of things I've changed my mind about over the past week. There are mostly comments, but I did try to edit text where I could. Just reverse the changes if you don't agree with my suggestions. Many of them were changes to help in clarity—since I'm not super familiar with formaldehyde, there were several places that I got tripped up, so I clarified in a way that I thought might make it easier for others in my position to read it.

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

I want to emphasize that I am happy to help out more with any of this—if it's okay with management. I realize this is late and time is running out.

Thank you!

Catherine

Hi Catherine,

Just following up about the TPWG review of the assessment overview. Are we waiting on a document with comments? I can't remember. Also, I don't have access to your site, and I still want to know your TPWG secrets.
